2009-2010 Teacher of the Year

The Teacher of the Year Committee, which consisted of staff, administration, parents, and a member of the Board of Education, met and reviewed nominations. This was a difficult process, not only because so many nominations were received, but also because it is so difficult to distinguish one person's contributions from another. All of the individuals nominated have impacted the school community in a significant manner. With that, I am pleased to announce that Diane Pona has been selected as "Teacher of the Year" for Delaware Valley.

Congratulations to Diane. This is an honor well deserved.
