

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The month of March is recognized across America as National Athletic Training Month!

Athletic Trainers are licensed healthcare providers who work with physicians, parents and coaches to provide healthcare to the physically active. They strive to keep all student-athletes in the game and performing at their best.

Please take a moment to acknowledge their efforts and give them a round of applause!